

---

---

IIDA ADVOCACY ADVISORY COUNCIL

---

---

Holly Meadows Baird, IIDA, MBA, LEED AP ID+C, EDAC, RID
Executive Director, U.S. Green Building Council Tennessee Chapter
Nashville, TN
Tennessee Chapter

Holly Meadows Baird is the executive director of the U.S. Green Building Council Tennessee Chapter. Over the past 13 years, Holly's career experience has covered a range of projects including corporate, hospitality, government, institutional, and sustainable design. Holly is an alumna of Vanderbilt University, the New York School of Interior Design, and Lipscomb University. She is a registered interior designer, LEED AP, EDAC-certified, and is a past president and chapter advisor of the IIDA Tennessee Chapter. She has served as a peer review specialist and grader for the NCIDQ exam, and as a subject matter expert and item writer for the LEED AP ID+C exam. Currently, Holly is beginning her second term as the coalition president of Tennessee IDEA where she has worked with the Board of Directors to rebrand and relaunch the advocacy effort throughout the state.

Stacey Crumbaker, IIDA
Interior Designer, Mahlum
Seattle, WA
Northern Pacific Chapter

With 10 years of construction and design experience, Stacey is an interior designer at Mahlum Architects with expertise in programming, documentation, and project management for civic projects and academic facilities. Stacey is a board member of the IIDA Northern Pacific Chapter, serving as president last year and remaining actively engaged with several IIDA initiatives, including the Western Region Student Design Charette. She is also on the Board of Directors for Design In Public, a strategic initiative of Seattle AIA that works to foster an appreciation of the role and impact design plays on urban life. Stacey received a Bachelor of Science in interior design and a Master of Architecture from Arizona State University. Stacey taught at Arizona State University and continues to teach as an adjunct faculty at the Cornish College of the Arts.

Jessica Doolittle, IIDA
Director of Interior Design, Altus Architectural Studios, Inc.
Omaha, NE
Great Plains Chapter

Jessica Doolittle is an award-winning interior healthcare design specialist. She has strong design experience in a wide range of projects and performs multiple project duties, including client meetings, space planning, and design-to-contract administration. Her expertise lies in creating a healthcare setting that is non-clinical, warm, and inviting. She has worked with many of the area's leaders in healthcare to transform interior spaces into inviting, healing, patient-centric environments.

---

---

IIDA ADVOCACY ADVISORY COUNCIL

---

---

Brett Logan, IIDA, RID
Principal, Logan + Designs
Tulsa, OK
Texas/Oklahoma Chapter

Brett Logan is the president of Oklahoma's coalition, OI DC. He is a registered interior designer, and has his own company, Logan + Designs, working on both residential and commercial projects. Brett's recent accomplishments include the passage of a series of bills making continuing education a requirement for Oklahoma registered interior designers, fending off deregulation bills, and rebuilding the OI DC website, making it interactive with the ability to collect data and donations and communicate to members across various platforms. He is a board member of the L. Pepin Museum Fund at Oklahoma State University and volunteers with the organization Sustainable Tulsa.

Susanne Molina, FIIDA, CID, LEED AP
Principal, K2S Studio
Los Angeles, CA
Southern California Chapter

As the principal of K2S studio, Susanne leads a diverse interior design practice focused on strategic planning and workplace design for entertainment and corporate clients. Susanne's career includes a strong focus on and support of advocacy for the Interior Design profession and has included roles such as vice president on the IIDA International Board of Directors from 2011 to 2015 and chairing the IIDA Advocacy Advisory Committee. Susanne has been engaged in setting the strategic direction for advocacy and legislative efforts; is actively involved with coalitions and IIDA chapters and their legislative efforts in Illinois, Utah, New York, Massachusetts, Florida, and California; and has spoken at the CIDQ Council of Delegates Symposium. She is also a 2015 inductee into the IIDA College of Fellows.

Carmen Preston, IIDA, NCIDQ, RID
Contract Sales Specialist A&D Market, Shaw Contract Group
Birmingham, AL
Alabama Chapter

Carmen Preston is an NCIDQ-certified interior designer as well as a registered interior designer (RID) in the state of Alabama. Her design career began in Birmingham in 2004. Throughout the course of her career, she has had the opportunity to work in many different areas of interior design including healthcare, corporate interiors, higher education, and facilities management. Carmen is actively involved with the design community in Alabama and has served in a variety of positions, including president of the IIDA Alabama Chapter and president of the Alabama Interior Design Coalition (AIDC). She currently serves as the vice president of advocacy for the IIDA Alabama Chapter and sits on the Board of Trustees for the IIDA Foundation. Carmen currently works for Shaw Contract Group as the architectural and design account manager for central and north Alabama.